Guest Teacher
Tyler Angle
New York City Ballet Principal

Admission Policies

Class size is limited and admission is on a first come, first serve basis. Drop ins for the day will be allowed if the class is not full. All drop in fees must be pre-paid before entering class. A registration form must be filled out before class and if the dancer is under 18, a parent must fill out and sign the form. No exceptions. All dancers must have a minimum of 3 years of ballet training.

Curriculum

The workshop is set up to provide students with high quality, intense training. Each day, the dancers will have a one hour and 45 minute technique class followed by a one hour pointe class or pre-pointe class. There will be a short break followed by 75 minutes of variations. Times are approximate and may vary daily depending on the teacher's specific lesson plans.

Please note: pre-pointe class is in no way an acknowledgement we consider your dancer ready for pointe. It is a class designed to help your dancer gain the strength needed for pointe and have an understanding of what pointe involves. Putting a dancer on pointe will be determined by the dancer's home school. A dancer's participation on pointe for pointe class or variations will be determined by the teacher.

Breaks between classes are very short and there is only a 30 minute lunch break. We ask that dancers bring their food for the entire day and not leave for lunch. Be sure to bring plenty of light, healthy, compact snacks and a light lunch plus plenty of water (please no other drinks in the studio).

Faculty

NMBC's guest teacher is Tyler Angle, a current principal dancer for New York City Ballet and teacher at the School of American Ballet. Tyler has also performed as a guest artist in NMBC's The Nutcracker Ballet, performing the role of the Cavalier.

Class Etiquette and Attire

All dancers will arrive dressed for class at least 15 minutes prior to the beginning of class and be in the classroom when class begins. Dancers who arrive late may be denied admittance to class. All female dancers will wear a plain black leotard and pink tights. No cover ups will be allowed and skirts only with permission of the teacher. Hair will be pulled up neatly and shoes will be in good shape. Colored leotards are allowed on Friday. Male dancers will wear a black or white shirt with black tights and shoes in good condition. No sweat pants. Dancers will treat each other, instructors, the staff and the facility with respect. Only water is allowed in the classroom and all cell phones will be in the off mode during the intensive and will remain in the dressing room.

Notification of Changes

NMBC reserves the right to change faculty, staff or times listed above. While we do not anticipate changes, they may occur. Updates will be given to registered dancers as they happen via email. Dancers and their parents are responsible to check their email for changes.

Refunds

There will be no refunds and no credit for missed classes.
